

Depth of Solar "Colors"

Sunspot

A fierce magnetic storm in the Sun's plasma (atoms ripped into electrons and nuclei) that hinders the movement of fusion heat from the Sun's core, thus it is about 1-2,000 K (or about 1,800 to 3,600 F) cooler than the Photosphere and looks very dark.

