Albireo

Quick Facts:

Distance: 430 Light-years.

Constellation: Cygnus

Blue and gold, beautiful and wide double. The brighter golden yellow star is a spectroscopic binary too close to resolve in small scopes.

Find it: It is the base star of the Northern Cross in Cygnus and is also known as Beta Cygni. GOTO: DOUBLE STARS.

Image Hewholooks CC BY-SA 3.0. Quick reference card by Derek Wallentinsen.