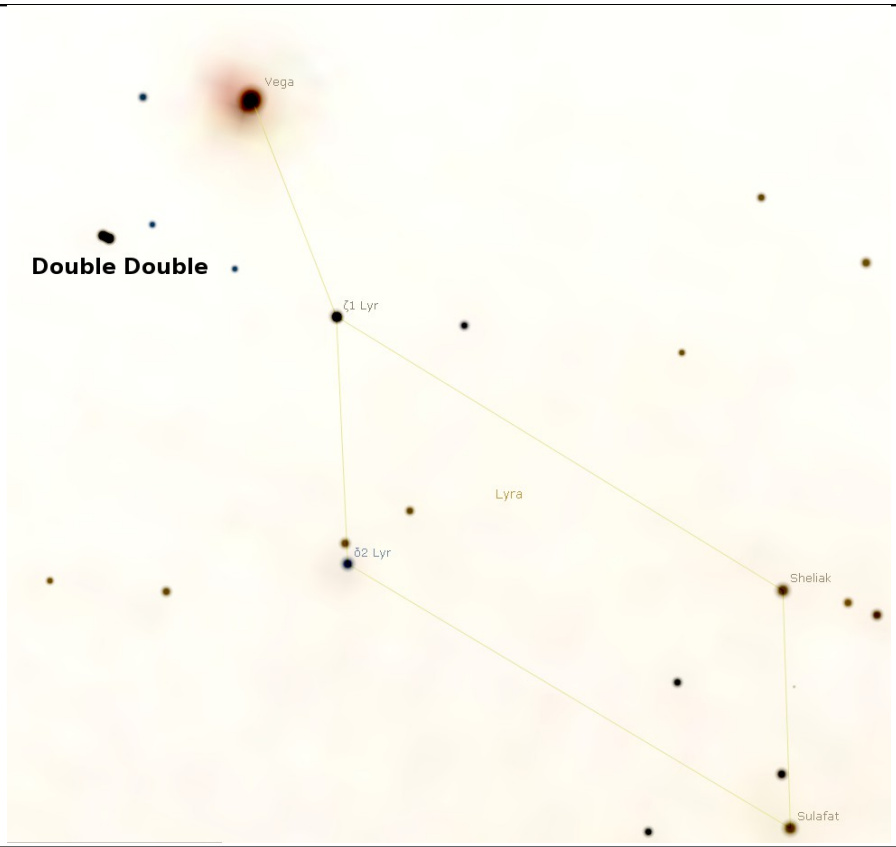
Double Double



Quick Facts:

Distance: 160 Light-years.

Constellation: Lyra.

Epsilon 1 and 2 Lyrae. Lovely quartet visible (resolvable) in most scopes. Some really sharp-eyed people can see the first wide double with the naked eye. Four gravitationally bound stars.

Find it: Just north and east of Vega and easy to find. GOTOs will have it under NAMED OBJECTS and DOUBLE STARS.

Image Stellarium. Quick reference card by Derek Wallentinsen.