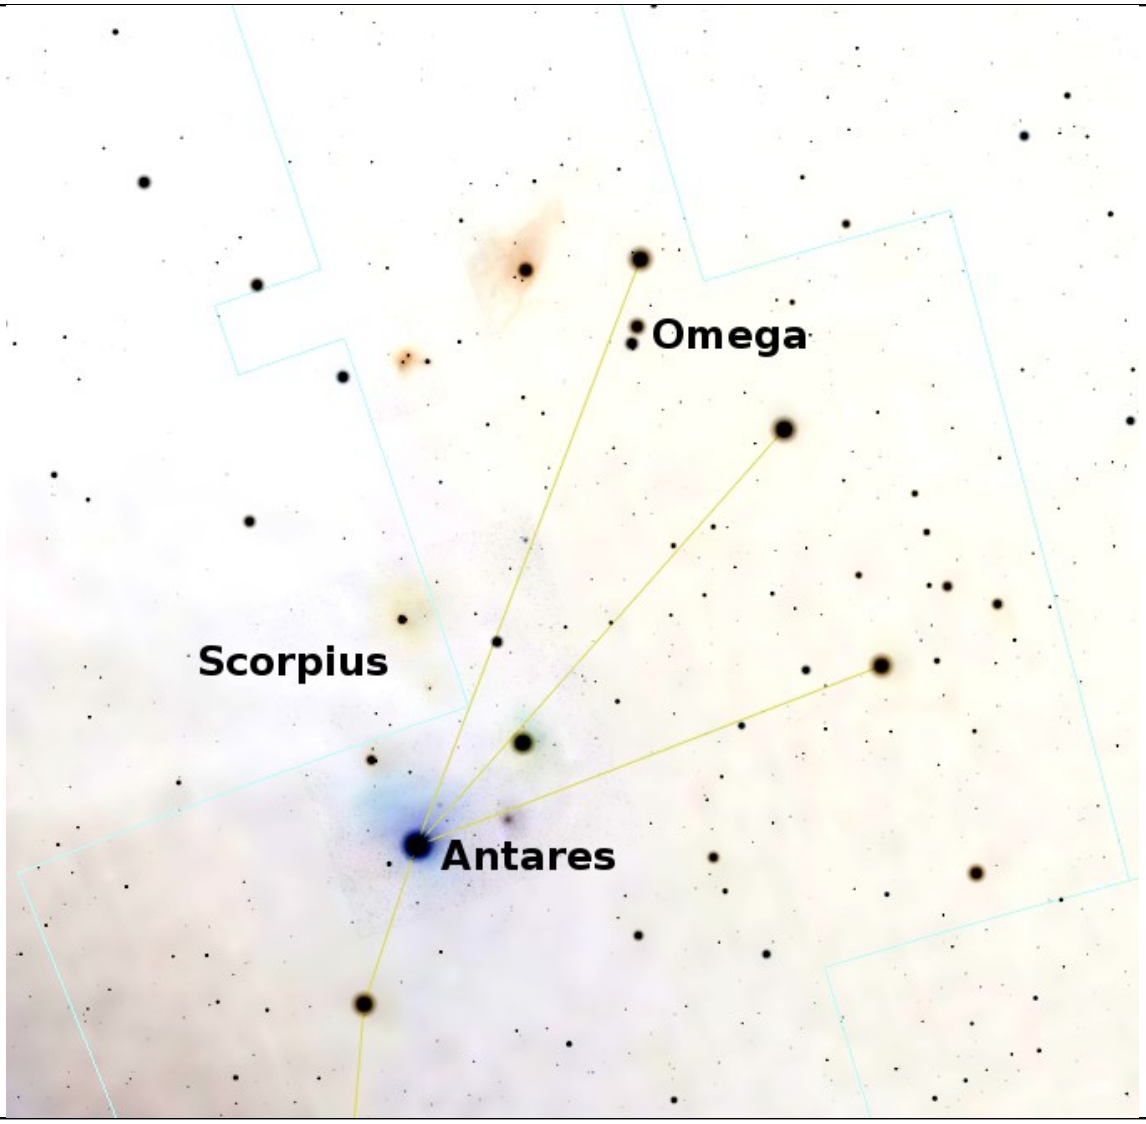
Omega Scorpii



Quick Facts:

Distances: 290 and 470 Light-years.

Constellation: Scorpius.

Easy to spot wide double in the head of Scorpius. Optical pair that can be seen and split with the unaided eye.

Find it: Look for Antares, find the three stars to its west forming the head. Omega is just south of the top star Graffias. NOT IN GOTO LISTS.

Image Stellarium. Quick reference card by Derek Wallentinsen.